

I received notice that the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) is challenging the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. I have enjoyed the peace and quiet in my home that this law has provided. I would hate for anything to happen that would destroy this setting. Please take this into consideration, as well as how it will affect the millions of other hoosiers if the CBA and other commercial institutions are allowed to weaken this law. I ask that you please dismiss the request by the CBA.